

Course Name	Description	Format	Length	Brochure
Immunization Basic Course	A one day, eight-hour course designed to train personnel on the essential elements of a safe and effective immunization program.	Live, Local	1 day
Immunization Leaders Course	A three-day course designed to train DoD Personnel and Service Members to perform a variety of tasks specific to the Anthrax Vaccine Immunization Program (AVIP) and the Smallpox Vaccination Program (SVP).	Live, Local	3 days
DoD Adenovirus Vaccine Training Curriculum	This is a 3 module online course (plus quiz) that will provide Military Healthcare Personnel with important and comprehensive information concerning the adenovirus vaccine.	Web-based training	Self-paced, 1 hour
DoD Smallpox Vaccination Training Curriculum	An online course that will provide Military Healthcare Personnel with important and comprehensive information concerning the smallpox vaccine.	Web-based training	Self-paced, 2.5 hours
DoD Influenza Vaccination Training Curriculum	An online course that will provide Military Healthcare Personnel with important and comprehensive information concerning the influenza vaccine.	Web-based training	Self-paced, 1.75 hours
Project Immune Readiness	DoD developed educational resources to support immunization services. Free CMEs/Contact Hours available.	Web-based training	Self-paced	Not Available
Tri-Service Immunization / Allergy Specialty Course	A five week course designed to develop professional and competent technicians and nurses who can provide comprehensive immunization and allergy services.	Live	5 weeks	Not Available

For continuing education and promotion point information, see <http://www.vaccines.mil/lmzU>.